Samuel H. Mellow

of Sillsville

Born at St. Austell, Cornwall, England, in 1828.

Came to Canada in 1850, & engaged at teaching at Morven
& at Anderson's school near Napanee.

Returned to his old home in 1854.

Married in 1855 to Mary J. Zelland, of Pungance who survives him.

Came to Canada in 1855 with his wife & his brother, Wm.
J. Mellow, of Grelina, also recently married. On their way they were shipwrecked at night at Holyhead, on the coast of Wales, but escaped with most of their belongings though the ship sank almost immediately.

On their arrival in Canada the brothers opened a store in Morven & a few years later purchased a tract of land in Kaladar, where they resided for three years,
but found transportation too difficult to make farming a success in that then remote township. About 40 yrs ago Samuel H. removed to Sillsville, & a few yrs.
later purchased a part of the Glebe or Clergy Reserve land, which has since been his home.

Methodist. & immediately after moving to Sillsville he arrested in organizing the Glebe Sunday School &
has been interested in it for 40 yrs.

Survived by wife & children

1. Annie J., now Mrs. Duncan Hough, of Sillsville.
2. Dr. Samuel J. of Port Perry.
